The 12-month programme offers students a chance to develop their professional skills and launch a career in advertising, public relations and other related fields.

The programme, which commences in January 2024, offers opportunities in the following disciplines:

- Finance
- Marketing
- Account Management
- Creative (Copywriters and Graphic Designers)
- Art Direction
- Strategy
- Public Relations
- Data/Digital
- Project Management
- Human Resources

There's nothing standard or mundane about an internship at TBWA\SA: Interns work with leaders rather than middle managers. They also develop critical thinking and soft skills.

“As The Disruption Company, we’re never complacent or satisfied with mediocrity: we’re driven to do better and achieve greater things. We work with the best and deliver for our clients. It’s one of the reasons why our internship is so coveted – it’s a foot in the door at one of the continent’s most awarded and celebrated agencies,” says Luca Gallarelli, Group CEO TBWA\SA.
