The agency won a Grand Prix, a Gold and two Silvers at the fourth edition of the festival held at the Hilton Convention Centre in Geneva, Switzerland.

The Grand Prix, Gold and one Silver was for its campaign The Soot Life Expectancy for client The Extra Step Initiative, the campaign that won the agency a Bronze Lion in the Health & wellness: Health: Non-profit / Foundation-led education & awareness category, also giving Nigeria's its first Lion at Cannes.

The agency's Masquerades campaign for client Loritem Recycling won its other Silver.

Lu'um means "world" or "fertile land" in the Mayan language. It is the first global festival dedicated to creativity, exclusively rewarding messages that seek to awaken a social, civic or environmental consciousness to make the world a better place.
