

eNCA reveals refreshed look and anchor line-up

Issued by eMedia

13 Jul 2018

From 6am on Monday 16 July 2018, viewers get their very first look at the refreshed eNCA channel as well as the new anchor line-up that will be bringing them the news every weekday.

From 6am to 9am, Dan Moyane and Uveka Rangappa will be waking up South Africans across the country on eNCA Morning News Today. The morning show highlights all the critical overnight news stories and provides an overview of the day that lies ahead for South Africans and will also take a look at the lighter side of life in the country with human interest and lifestyle features.

Between 9am and 5pm, eNCA Now will be anchored by Xoli Mngambi, Jeremy Maggs, Michelle Craig and Thulasizwe Simelane throughout the day. eNCA Now will bring viewers non-stop rolling news action live and as it happens with business insights provided by Devan Murugan.

eNCA News Night will be anchored by Vuyo Mvoko and Cathy Mohahlana and will broadcast every weeknight from 5pm to 8pm. Vuyo and Cathy will be making sense of the top news stories of the day and will tell viewers why they matter.

Tonight with Jane Dutton is exclusive to eNCA and features the world renowned news personality, Jane Dutton, host South Africa's first interactive news talk show at 8pm every weeknight. The talk show will have a viewers talking and taking part through tweets, texts and calls and offers all the answers to the country's most pertinent questions.

eNCA News Hour will be anchored by Shahan Ramkissoon and Siki Mgabadeli at 10pm and is a one-hour nightly look at the top news and business stories of the day. The news show will feature business correspondents from around the world and delve deep into the news that made headlines.

Mapi Mhlangu, Editor-in-chief and MD of eNCA, is ecstatic about her new team of anchors that will inform viewers of the latest news in South Africa and the world during the week. "eNCA is now ten years old: it is the undisputed market leader and continues to report on South African, African and international news fairly, accurately, impartially, and without fear of favour. We're very lucky at eNCA to have a group of experienced journalists who bring wisdom, institutional memory and mentorship to the weekday news programming. eNCA has new look, new shows, key interviews with leading newsmakers and a slew of hard-hitting investigative pieces which will cement the channel's place as the number one news channel in South Africa," says Mhlangu.

eNCA Morning News Today will be anchored by Dan Moyane and Uveka Rangappa from 6am to 9am every weekday.

eNCA Now will be anchored by Jeremy Maggs, Xoli Mngambi, Michelle Craig, Thulasizwe Simelane with Devan Murugan providing business news insights from 9am to 5pm every weekday.

eNCA News Night will be anchored by Vuyo Mvoko and Cathy Mohahalana from 5pm to 8pm every weeknight.

Tonight with Jane Dutton will be hosted by Jane Dutton from 8pm every weeknight.

eNCA News Hour will be hosted by Shahan Ramkissoo from 10pm every weeknight.

eNCA is available on DStv on channel 403

" eExtra runs for the try line with new rugby programme 21 May 2024

" Young star shone brightly! 8 May 2024

" A newly bottled #KeldersVanGeheime is ready to be served! 7 May 2024

" OUTtv Proud shows its colours on eVOD 29 Apr 2024

" The court has decided! 16 Apr 2024

eMedia

eMedia Investments is a South African-based media group with a number of core assets in the television and radio broadcasting sector.

Profile | News | Contact | Twitter | Facebook | RSS Feed

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>