

Showcasing the best of emerging SA fashion

As part of its commitment to supporting South African fashion, international fashion magazine Marie Claire will host its first ever Marie Claire Nouveau Collection at this year's Nokia Cape Town Fashion Week. The collection, chosen by the fashion team at Marie Claire South Africa, consists of work by four young designers - Esme Viviers for Stuffit, Tshepo Mafokwane for Sober, Kathrin Kidger for Reine and Zinhle Nkosi for African Dust - chosen on the basis of their entries into the Nederburg Rare Fashion Finds 2006 competition.
