

See: The all-new Audi RS Q8

Audi has revealed the new RS Q8 model in its Q SUV product line. The RS Q8 combines the power of an RS model with the elegance of a premium coupé and the flexibility of an SUV. It also features a biturbo V8 petrol engine, combining maximum performance and high efficiency, with an acceleration from 0 to 100 km/h in just 3.8 seconds and to 200 km/h in 13.7 seconds. See the gallery below:

The Audi RS Q8's interior is features Valcona leather electric and massaging RS sport seats as standard. It also has the RS Heads-Up Display, black or cognac upholstery, the perforated Alcantara RS sport steering wheel with RS1 and RS2 buttons, aluminium and anthracite inlays, and illuminated RS Q8 door sills.

The RS Q8 also has a range of standard safety and assist systems which include things such as the adaptive cruise assist, efficiency assist and intersection assist, as well as an infotainment system.

The new Audi RS Q8 will officially go on sale in South Africa from 1 April 2021 and is priced at R2,354,500.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>