

One billion users are active on TikTok each month

TikTok announced that one billion people visit the platform every month to have fun, learn, laugh or discover something new.

TikTok has become a part of people's daily lives around the world because of its creative and authentic creators. Its global community has reached millions of people of all generations who share their creations with others.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>