

The One Club, SVC launch mini degree to help creatives future-proof their careers

The One Club for Creativity and School of Visual Concepts (SVC) have partnered to launch 2nd Skill, a unique program aimed at helping art directors, graphic designers and copywriters retrain and upskill for their second creative career. The programme offers part-time programs in UX design, UI/visual design, and content strategy/UX writing, taught online two nights per week for nine months.

Applications for the courses are open and the UX design courses start on 22 February 2021, while UI/visual design and content strategy/UX writing courses begin on 8 March and 29 March 2021 respectively.
