MTN Durban Fashion Week, now in its third year, has established itself as a vibrant international fashion platform for top SA designers to showcase their collections.

This year top local designers like Gideon and Lindiwe Kuzwayo and couturiers from all over South Africa who have their roots in Durban, such as Gavin Rajah, Malcolm Kluk and Craig Native, together with an exciting line up of young and emerging designers will show their innovative collections over four days on the beach at the Suncoast Casino and Entertainment World in Durban from 27 to 30 June.

For a hint of what to expect, here are a few photo's from last year's fashion week, held at the Durban ICC from 21 - 24 July.
