

Nobuhle Renqe joins the Isuzu Motors South Africa's executive team

Isuzu Motors South Africa has appointed Nobuhle Renqe as its executive director of corporate planning, strategy and business planning. She brings an extensive amount of knowledge of the manufacturing industry and a strong academic background, including undergraduate degrees in mechanical engineering from Nelson Mandela University, along with an executive MBA from Brown University (USA) and IE Business School (Spain).

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>