"I have been honoured many times and each time it happens, it's as if I am a little boy who has just been given a sweet. It is special to me because it is presented by the king [King Charles] himself," says Kani.

The announcement was made by the British High Commissioner in Pretoria, Antony Phillipson, who called the award an "extremely well-deserved" tribute to Kani's illustrious 60-year career as an actor, author, director and playwright.

*"We are thrilled to share the news of 🇿🇦's John Kani being recognised with this prestigious 🇬🇧 honour for his services to drama. This is testament to his exceptional talent and contribution to the world of arts🎭🎭🎭🎭🎭

The OBE is a highly esteemed British honour that is granted exclusively by the king to exceptional citizens and non-citizens in various fields, including business, science, and the arts.

It is a recognition that signifies the utmost level of excellence and is reserved only for those who have demonstrated an unwavering commitment to their craft.

Kani's legacy extends beyond South Africa's borders, having made his mark in Hollywood, and particularly in British theatre.

Born in 1942 in New Brighton, Gqeberha, Kani got his acting break in 1975, appearing in the anti-apartheid play Sizwe Bansi Is Dead which he co-wrote.

In a career spanning 60 years, with memorable performances in numerous productions, from Kunene and the King to 2019 The Lion King remake, Black Panther and his role T'Chaka, and Colonel Ulenga in the Netflix film Murder Mystery.

He has received great acclaim for his work in theatre, film, and television including the Lifetime Achievement Award by the South African Film and Television Awards, an honorary doctorate by the University of Cape Town (2006) and the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University appointed him an honorary Doctor of Philosophy in 2013.

He is the first name to be admitted into the Primedia Hall of Fame this year.

He also received the Order of Ikhamanga Silver for his contributions to the theatre during the struggle for a non-racial, non-sexist, and democratic South Africa.

“ Dr John Bonisile Kani has made an immeasurable mark in theatre locally and abroad. You are a South African treasure and titan @KANI_ELDER.
