You can search for any new car in South Africa by price, brand, model, body shape, fuel type, and more – all from the comfort of your PC, laptop, smartphone, or tablet.

Users also get access to all the important facts and figures about each model they are looking into, including:

- Power and torque
- Body shape
- Engine size and fuel type
- Transmission type
- Gear type and driven wheels
- Fuel consumption
- Number of doors
- Date of introduction to the market

This information is available for every new car being sold in South Africa – from fuel-efficient hatchbacks and family-friendly SUVs, to the toughest 4×4 bakkies and high-performance supercars.

That's not all – you can also compare your favourite models side-by-side. This allows you to see which cars offer the best package, based on what you need.
