If you are proud of either your company or your client's achievements and their corporate performance; and you would like to position them amongst South Africa's top performers and at the same time generate an excellent corporate branding opportunity, the National Business Awards are a must!

On the 30th July 2009 Topco Media are hosting the 5th annual National Business Awards (NBA's) at the Sandton Convention Centre celebrating over five years of outstanding business achievements in our community! The annual National Business Awards gala evening is a premier South African business-networking event, recognising individuals, entrepreneurs, corporations and Government for excellence and their major contributions to the success of the South African economy. The NBA's will feature the awards presentations, with great cuisine, wonderful music and entertainment, a keynote address, AND lots of surprises guaranteed. Make sure you are at the Oscars of the Business World!

This black-tie event includes the "who's-who" of the South African entrepreneurial, corporate, and political worlds. The evening promises a star-studded guest list, and the movers and shakers of the South African business arena.
