The 10th Cape Homemakers Expo opens its doors on Thursday, 1 September, at the Cape Town International Convention Centre (CTICC) and is on until Sunday 4 September. Established as Cape Town's most successful home lifestyle exhibition, the show has more than 360 exhibitors and covers more than 11 300m². It brims with everything for in and around the home.

Exciting features at this year's show includes the Telkom Touch Tomorrow in Design competition, where visitors can view the latest in chair designs. The Lights by Linea 'Dancing in the Moodlight' competition offers visitors the opportunity to not only view the creative lighting designs but also purchase a unique piece of functional art and support a designer-in-the-making.

Another highlight at this year's show is the newly established Audiovision Sound Emporium. This is any techno-lovers dream with a massive range of the very best digital home entertainment, sound distribution and digital imaging products on display.

Tickets are R40 per person. For more information phone (021) 465 2200 or log on to www.homemakersfaircape.co.za.
