Over the past eleven years the Oliver Empowerment and Transformation Awards has celebrated South Africa's black economic empowerment champions. Recognised as the country's most influential empowerment awards ceremony, The Oliver Awards aim to identify and acknowledge true empowerment leadership and innovation. In particular, these Awards celebrate companies and individuals in the public and private sectors that are excelling in job creation, entrepreneurship and enterprise development.

After a nation-wide call for entries targeting eligible individuals, SME's and large corporations, this year has produced the highest calibre of finalists in the 12-year history of the Oliver Awards. Here is a look at who some of the finalists for the 12th Annual Oliver Empowerment and Transformation Awards are (the full list is available on the website):
