

US gets to Talk2Us

Daniel Munslow

The International Association of Business Communicators in the US has invited Daniel Munslow, chief communications officer at Talk2Us, to deliver a presentation on "Recognition management: The role of leadership in the communication cycle" at the annual World Conference to be held in San Diego, California, from 12-15 June 2011. The conference, attended by more than 1400 communication professionals from 40 countries, brings together fresh ideas, winning case studies and best practices in communication from different parts of the world.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>