

AABLA nominations now open

The All Africa Business Leaders Awards (AABLA) will once again honour its captains of industry in 2013. Following the successful rollout in 2012, nominations for the AABLA are now open.

The awards acknowledge and honour individuals who have demonstrated exemplary leadership in the business world. The categories will remain the same as 2012.

The categories for West, East and Southern Africa are:

- Young Business Leader of the Year
- Business Women of the Year
- Business Leader of the Year
- Entrepreneur of the Year
- Lifetime Achievement Award

All winners from the regional awards will go through to the finale which is set to take place in South Africa in October 2013.
