VIMN Africa makes promotions, additions to executive team

Viacom International Media Networks (VIMN) Africa has made some promotions and additions to its executive team. Current VIMN Africa SVP and MD, Alex Okosi has been promoted to the company's new executive VP and MD while the former senior commercial director, Strini Naicker has been named the new VP of commercial and content distribution.

Dillon Khan has been appointed as the VP for Comedy Central Africa, Chris Torline has been promoted to senior marketing and digital media director and formerly senior legal counsel, Richard Hill has been named the legal director of VIMN Africa. Other appointments include Londeka Nxumalo who joins the VIMN Africa team as the human resources director.

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com