

Caprice to heat up the catwalk

"The secret is out internationally that Cape Town is one of the world's most stylish destinations," says celebrity and fashion entrepreneur Caprice. "There is an amazing creative renaissance going on in South Africa, with Cape Town being the perfect place to showcase this work to the world; I was thrilled to be invited as a guest designer at Nokia Cape Town Fashion Week." Caprice's latest lingerie collection will debut at the Fashion Week, which runs 11 - 15 July 2006 at the Cape Town International Convention Centre.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>