

Majority of CEOs in Africa to take to tech in 2014

A report on IT News Africa states that, according to a PwC survey, 87% of CEOs in Africa are planning to increase investment in technology in 2014.

For more:

- IT News Africa: 87% of CEOs in Africa to take on technology this year - PwC survey... The report further states that "PwC's 16th Annual Global CEO Survey reveals that the perception of technology amongst senior executives is that it is an easy enabler of agility and growth because it helps with risk management and skills development and retention."

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>