

ACEC gets new logo, seeks volunteers

Arterial Network's 4th African Creative Economy Conference, organised in partnership with the associations Racines/Arterial Network Morocco, has revealed its new logo and is also calling for volunteers for this year's conference.

The conference will take place from the 13-15 November 2014 in the city of Rabat at the National Library. The official African Creative Economy Conference website will go live in April with details of registration and programme.

Racines/Arterial Network Morocco is looking for volunteers to strengthen the organization and preparation ahead of the ACEC particularly at the level of communication, logistics and coordination of all activities that will take place before and during this event.

When?

- First level (option 1): from 15 September to 15 November 2014
- Second level (option 2): from 10 November to 15 November 2014

Who?

- Students or graduates in cultural studies (cultural mediation, cultural engineering, book publishing, cinema & audiovisual studies, theater studies...etc.).
- Students or graduates from public or private schools in business administration (management, marketing...etc.).
- Students or graduates from public or private schools in communication and journalism.
- Students or graduates from public or private schools in international relations.

How?

Volunteers have to:

- be between 18 years old and 35 years old
- be available for the periods mentioned above (option 1 or option 2)
- be a resident in Morocco (just for national volunteers)
- master French and English. A good knowledge of Arabic is a plus for international volunteers
- be a team player, versatile and able to work in an international environment

- choose option 1 or option 2
- be financially independent: accommodation and transportation expenses are not covered (just for international volunteers)

Selected candidates will benefit from one-day training for the preparation and organisation of the ACEC for option 1 and 2. Applications must be sent before 15 April 2014 to mehdi.racines@gmail.com along with a resume and a cover letter (5 to 10 sentences), while specifying your choice (option 1 or 2) inside your email.
