

African SABRE Awards 2019 extends deadline

The SABRE Awards has announced the final deadline for entries for the Africa competition that has been extended to 15 February (closes at midnight Pacific Standard Time).

© Holmes Report website.

The entry site includes relevant information for the Africa competition, including categories, fees, key date and advice on crafting a winning entry. It also provides a streamlined and intuitive system for uploading all entry and payment information.

The SABRE Awards – with a 25-year heritage – now cover the entire global public relations business through six regional competitions, making them the largest and most prestigious awards programs in the F world.

APRA & SABRE AWARDS

Africa SABRE PR awards call for entry

3 Dec 2018

Need some inspiration? View the 2018 Global SABRE winning campaigns here.