

Ooredoo TV set up box has a new look

Ooredoo TV customers can now enjoy the new set-top box which will include all digital services such as conventional linear TV, on-demand service, apps and games and also catch-up feature. The new set up box, which is real HDR 4K, providing high resolution picture to viewers and has 16GB memory, this allows subscribers to download a number of apps and games. All these features are powered by Android TV.

© Andriy Popov via 123RF

Some features of the new Ooredoo tv include: Arabic and English User Interface; Full UHD and Dolby; hit shows, movies and music videos on Google Play, StarzPlay, YouTube and Yupp TV; ready access to more than 3,500 apps, with more being added constantly; superior Wi-Fi connectivity.

Manar Khalifa al-Muraikhi, director PR and Corporate Communications at Ooredoo, said of the launch: “We’re incredibly pleased to be able to offer this comprehensive, state-of-the-art digital entertainment solution to our customers at such great value.”

With its brand-new look and a strong and powerful engine that works between various content platform. The users’ interface has offers such as faster channel switching, Kids mode, creating your own channel profile locking mechanism as parental control, Bluetooth supported, with capability to connect to gaming pads and speakers and many more.

Source: NexTVAfrica.com.