

StarTimes partners with MLW to air 'Fusion' in Africa

Major League Wrestling has recently announced it has entered into an agreement to broadcast its flagship weekly hour-long program MLW Fusion non-exclusively in Africa on StarTimes.

Image source: Gallo/Getty.

The partnership will commence this summer with weekly episodes of MLW Fusion. “The African region is extremely important to Major League Wrestling, and we are thrilled to begin this partnership with StarTimes to bring MLW to our fans in Africa,” said Court Bauer, MLW’s founder and CEO.

StarTimes Media, a well-recognised pay TV provider with over 9 million subscribers worldwide, has facilitated the transmission of more than 80 local and international channels over the StarTimes platform.

StarTimes has seven of their own original channels, with content covering news, sports, music, movies, TV series, entertainment and documentaries.

StarTimes services are available in over 10 African countries, including Nigeria, Tanzania, Uganda, Rwanda, Burundi, and Sudan, as well as two broadcasting centres in Dar es Salaam and Abuja.

Source: NexTVAfrica.com.