

Mango discount for 2010 Loeries attendees

For the fourth consecutive year Mango is offering discounted flights to everyone attending The 2010 Loerie Awards in Cape Town. Tickets are available on a first-come, first-served basis and prices are only applicable while capacity is available.

Return flights are available from ZAR1474 from Johannesburg, Durban and Bloemfontein to Cape Town. The special price includes VAT and all airport taxes.

Valid for attendees only

Flights are only valid for those attending The Loerie Awards and one will only be able to check in at the airport by presenting event tickets along with ID books. Accompanying partners can fly as long as a Loerie Computicket is presented.

"Mango is thrilled to reaffirm its relationship with The Loerie Awards. It is a partnership that has become one of our calendar highlights; carrying South Africa's creative and strategic talent to the region's most prestigious event," says Nico Bezuidenhout, Mango CEO. "Creativity and innovation is what drives us as a business and this is where the common ground between Mango and the Loeries is seeded."

The awards ceremonies will take place Saturday 2 October and Sunday 3 October in Cape Town. For full information on flights, accommodation and tickets for the festival weekend visit the Loeries website.

Call the Loeries desk on +27 (0) 11 359 2354 to make reservations. The desk is open Monday - Friday, 9:00am - 4pm.
