1 Dec 2011

The Rock the River SA New Year's festival lineup is heating up by the day. Joining Peachy Keen and Axxon on the log, we have Cape Town Indie act REBURN.

The five-piece consists of Scottie Moore (frontman), Alex McFarlane (guitar and vocals), Craig Hermanus (guitar and vocals), Liam McDevitt (bass) and Wade Brown (Drums) and has of late been filling venues with scores of loyal fans and converted club kids. Lead as they are by two hotblooded Scots, the group's sound is fast-paced, energetic and highly contagious - a lethal combination that will soon be showcased on a new album that is set to drop early next year with the help of UK producer Tristan Keyte and multiple SAMA-winning producer Brian O'Shea.

Aside from their appearance at RTR SA, Cape Town locals can also look forward to seeing REBURN live and on stage at Obsfest main stage at 16:00 and later at ROAR on the weekend of the 8th of December.

Keen to know more? Like REBURN on Facebook, follow them on Twitter, listen to their tunes and read up on their history.

And then buy your tickets so you can be sure to experience it all in the flesh at the 2011 Rock the River SA New Year's festival. The band has promised a very hush-hush on-stage Scottish-themed surprise...
