

AKA to co-host the Channel O Africa Music Video Awards

South African rapper, AKA is to co-host the 10th annual Channel O Africa Music Video Awards, which take place on Saturday, 30 November 2013, at Walter Sisulu Square, Kiptown, Soweto.

AKA is to co-host the ceremony with fellow industry superstar Naeto C. The event will be broadcast live on Channel O and is pegged to be a star-studded event with the who's who in the African entertainment industry in attendance.

"I am very honoured to co-host this celebration of Africa's finest talent with Naeto C. I won my first Channel O Africa Music Video Award in 2011 and, two years later, being in this position is testament to my loyal following. Thank you to Channel O and the fans. It's going to be a classic night," expressed AKA.

Africa's hip hop prince, AKA, is a multiple nominee for the forthcoming award ceremony. He has received three nominations in the Video of The Year category - for his own song Jealousy and two collaborations, Xstatic/AKA & Priddy Ugly's Hit 'Em Up and Zeus ft AKA & Tumi's #DatsWasup. Jealousy is also in the running for the Most Gifted Hip Hop Video - a category AKA won in 2011 for his number one song, Victory Lap.

For more, go to <http://channelo-awards.dstv.com>

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>