

Air Tanzania to resume flights to South Africa

Air Tanzania is set to resume services between O.R. Tambo International Airport in Johannesburg (JNB) and Dar es Salaam (DAR) with connections to domestic and international destinations from 28 June 2019. These include Zanzibar, Mtwara, Mwanza, Kilimanjaro, Mbeya; Zambia, Zimbabwe, Uganda, Bujumbura respectively. Flights between JNB-DAR will commence with four frequencies on days Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Sunday using a Boeing 787-8 Dreamliner.

Image via Air Tanzania

{{image}}

"As we continue extending the wings of Kilimanjaro over Africa and beyond, we believe that investment, trade and tourism opportunities presented by our expanding network will add value to both countries as we strive to offer affordable and improved connections between Tanzania and South Africa," says Eng. Ladislaus Matindi, Air Tanzania's CEO and managing director.

Air Tanzania's fleet of 8 modern aircraft serves 18 destinations including the Spice Island of Zanzibar; the Business Capital of Tanzania – Dar es Salaam; Mwanza; Kilimanjaro, and on 22 February 2019, commenced flights to Harare-Zimbabwe and Lusaka-Zambia.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>