

Toya Delazy, Tresor and Lira to perform at virtual Africa Day concert

In celebration of Africa Day, Mall of Africa is hosting the Sessions for Africa Day online concert on 25 May 2020. Starting from 7pm, Toya Delazy, Tresor and Lira will be performing their best hits, live from their homes.

The concert is free of charge, however, viewers are encouraged to show their appreciation and donate. Contributions can be made via mallofafrica.co.za will go to towards supporting local artists and the Attacq and Mfudumalo Foundation.

“As we all adjust to the current situation that the Covid-19 pandemic restrictions have demanded of us, Mall of Africa has innovated to find new ways to continue delivering unique experiences for our shoppers - and our wider community. We are thrilled that some of South Africa’s top talent is joining us in this initiative; a first of its kind for the Mall,” says Michael Clampett, Head of Asset and Property Management-Retail of Attacq Limited.

To tune into the concert, visit Mall of Africa’s Facebook and YouTube pages.

Artist line up:

Brent Lindeque: Emcee

Toya Delazy: 7– 7:40 pm

Tresor: 7:40 - 8:20pm

Lira: 8:20 – 9 pm

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>