

Messe Frankfurt South Africa launches 2019 Photo of the Year competition

The search for the winner of the 2019 Messe Frankfurt South Africa Photo of the Year competition is underway. The competition is aimed at all imaging enthusiasts and comprises six categories aimed at varying levels of expertise.

The six categories of the Photo of the Year competition are wildlife, nature, fashion, wedding, creative and an open category for images taken with a smartphone. Participants may submit up to four images per category. Three finalists will be selected and their work showcased at the 2019 Photo & Video Experience; the six category winners will be announced at the show.

The competition will run until 5 July 2019 and judging will be done independently by the Photographic Society of South Africa (PSSA). To view the entry rules and submit your images, please visit: <https://bit.ly/2GEeRvc>.
