

Stevie Awards nominations open until 9 Jan 2020

Nominations for the 2020 Stevie Awards for sales and customer service will remain open until 9 January 2020. The awards are open to customer service, business development and sales professionals.

Late fees will apply for nominations submitted after 13 November, but no entry fees or late fees will apply for nominations to a new category to recognise ethical sales practices.

The Sales Partnerships Award for Ethics in Sales will recognise outstanding examples of ethical sales practices since 1 July 2018. As in all other categories in the competition, nominees may submit a written essay or case study of up to 650 words describing their ethical sales practices and achievements or a video of up to five minutes in length, illustrating the same.

Complete details on the competition, including how to participate, are available at www.StevieAwards.com/Sales.
