

Film board cracks down on online distribution of adult material

ITWeb reports that the Film and Publications Board has given online distributors of adult material in South Africa until the end of December 2006 to discontinue their services. For more, click here.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>