

Mark Kyle joins Webber Wentzel as partner

Banking and finance lawyer Mark Kyle has been appointed as Webber Wentzel's newest partner. Kyle joins Webber Wentzel from the corporate and investment banking team at Standard Bank South Africa.

After obtaining his bachelor of arts and bachelor of laws from the University of Stellenbosch, Kyle spent part of his early career in London at Webber Wentzel's alliance partner, Linklaters. Thereafter he returned to SA and worked at Norton Rose (formerly known as Deneys Reitz) before joining Standard Bank.
