

Home Handyman magazine appoints new editor

Home Handyman magazine has announced the appointment of Gareth Greathead as editor with effect of the August issue.

Gareth is a keen DIY'er in his personal capacity and has taken on a variety of projects, from woodwork to plumbing and even waterproofing a roof. He previously worked on a number of trade publications in the built environment covering plumbing, architecture and design as well as mining.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>