Demonstrating their understanding of the commuter market, ComutaNet immersed the staff at L'Oreal head office in Sandton in the unique taxi rank culture with a traditional rank luncheon on Friday, 20 May 2011. The spread included everything you'd find on a regular visit to your local rank; including vetkoek and polony, mopane worms, snoek and atchar, Simba chips, fruit and sweets. George "The Beatboxer" Avakian provided some lekker entertainment.
