

Unplugged62 held in October 2016

Unplugged62, a weekend filled with live music, food and wine will take place at the Joubert-Tradauw Wine Farm, Barrydale from 7-9 October 2016.

SA musician line-up

The organisers, Red Hot Events, have arranged the following local musicians to perform throughout the weekend:

Albert Frost

Majozi

Nomadic Orchestra

Manouche

Slow Jack

Hatchetman

DJ Dirtroad

All ticket options include a full weekend of festivities. The Joubert-Tradauw Wine Farm will host nine bands starting Friday evening at 19.00 and ending Sunday morning at 11.00. Tickets also include access to camping facilities, as well as a R62 Deli Alfresco Klein Karoo lunch on the Saturday from 15.00-17.00 along with a glass of Unplugged62 Sauvignon/Merlot.

There will also be a market style tasting of cheeses, wine, olives and biltong on the farm.

Ticket prices:

Adults weekend pass: R750

Kids 12 and over: R375

Kids under 12: Free entry

Click here to buy tickets

The R62 Deli will be catering certain meals during the weekend, but won't be open for normal business over the weekend. Therefore, visitors wishing to order meals from the deli must pre-book their meals along with their tickets or buy from one of the local vendors in the market area. Meal ticket prices displayed below apply for all ages.

Meal ticket prices:

Spitbraai (Friday): R90

Champagne Breakfast (Saturday): R120

Farmhouse Breakfast (Sunday): R80

*All prices exclude booking fees.

Accommodation:

Access to the campsite on the wine farm is included in the weekend pass. Visitors may view the website for alternative forms of accommodation.

Facebook | Twitter | Instagram

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>