

Meridian Cosmo City appoints new executive head

Meridian Cosmo City, an independent school managed by Curro Holdings, has appointed Roshana Froom as its new executive head.

Froom has gained a vast level of experience in the South African business and education industries since obtaining an MBA from the Millpark Business School in addition to a postgraduate diploma in tertiary education from UNISA.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>