

Last chance to vote for your favourite Sanlam Top Destination

The final countdown for the fourth annual Sanlam Top Destination Awards has begun, with just three weeks left of voting. Since March 2018, voters have shown their support for their favourite establishments across 10 categories, including the addition of the Water Sustainability Award - created in conjunction with Water 4 Cape Town and Cape Town Tourism to reward the most water conscious establishment.

The Sanlam Top Destination Awards is an annual hospitality awards programme culminating in a grand gala evening, celebrating hospitality establishments throughout South Africa. Founded by Granadilla Media, creators of Discount Traveler South Africa and The Traveler Mag SA, the ceremony enters its fourth year, promoting in- and out-bound tourism in South Africa.

The gala ceremony will take place in the newly renovated Rotunda at The Bay Hotel in Camps Bay on Thursday, 20 September where 40 winners from 9,600 nominees will receive their share of R1,000,000 in advertising as well as the sought-after title of Top Destination in their respective categories and star grading.
