

Boschendal is now a five-time 2017 Concours Mondial de Bruxelles medalist

After competing against 9,080 wines from 50 countries, Boschendal has received one gold and four silver medals at the 24th Concours Mondial de Bruxelles. An international panel of 320 judges which includes wine buyers, oenologists, journalists, and sommeliers gathered in Spain from 5 to 7 May to muse over the latest innovations in the global viticulture industry.

The Boschendal Lanoy 2015 received the gold medal while the Boschendal Sommelier Selection Chenin Blanc 2016, the Boschendal Sommelier Selection Pinotage 2015, the Boschendal The Pavillion Chenin Blanc 2016, and the Boschendal The Pavillion Shiraz Cabernet Sauvignon 2015 received silver medals.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>