

Emirates makes strategic leadership appointments

Emirates has appointed Adel Al Redha as its chief operating officer, Adnan Kazim as its chief commercial officer and Sheikh Majid Al Mualla as its divisional senior vice president of international affairs.

As the chief operating officer, Al Redha is at the helm of all operational departments which include flight operations, service delivery, airport services, Emirates engineering, crew manpower, aircraft procurement, the Emirates Flight Training Academy and more.

In his role as the chief commercial officer, Kazim is responsible for worldwide commercial operations, e-commerce, the Emirates Skywards loyalty programme and Emirates SkyCargo.

In his role as the senior vice president of international affairs., Al Mualla will drive the airline's government, industry, public policy, regulatory, environment and international affairs agenda.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>