

rebroadcast Emmy award winning 'Miners Shot Down'

[ED], the first South African channel to air the international Emmy Award winning documentary 'Miners Shot Down', repeated the documentary on Sunday 29 November 2015, following its acclaim. Rehad Desai's hard-hitting film tells of the August 2012 wildcat strike at Lonmin's Marikana mine in which police used live ammunition to suppress the strike, killing 34 people.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>