

YuLife South Africa names Tribeca Public Relations as its PR agency

Tribeca Public Relations has been appointed to provide strategic communications support to YuLife as it seeks to establish its presence in South Africa.

By collaborating, both companies hope to bridge the gap between insurance and wellbeing, fostering a deeper understanding of how personal wellness directly influences professional success and empowering individuals to lead healthier and more fulfilling lives.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>