

Nando's deliver to Johannesburg Children's Home

Following the Santam spoof challenge Nando's, the latter has anticipated the deadline of the substantially sized takeaway order to the Johannesburg Children's Home by today, Thursday, 26 April 2012 at 4pm and, firing up its grills and staff, delivered on yesterday afternoon, Wednesday 25 April.

Donald Kau, head of corporate communications for Santam and Quinton Cronje, marketing manager of Nando's at the Johannesburg Children's Home on 26 April 2012.

It has also promised to deliver food to the home on the last Friday of every month for the rest of the year.

Quinton Cronje, Nando's South Africa marketing director said the brand was actually "more than happy to oblige" when publicly asked to do something good. "We're also very flattered that a prominent financial institution liked our advert so much it took the time to spoof it." Like some Sir said, it is all about taking care of the detail and the group is happy to oblige.
