

Montblanc & UNICEF Signature for Good charity gala

SA's leading performing artists, screen stars and prominent personalities all descended on the Montblanc boutique in Sandton City in celebration of World Literacy Day.

Hosted by UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador, Yvonne Chaka Chaka, the night saw socialites, customers and celebrities alike pledging their support to education and literacy worldwide.

Set to the sounds of soulful crooner, Jacques Largesse, guests were encouraged to sign the illiteracy petition and browse the collection of Special Edition products from the Montblanc and UNICEF product collection, proceeds of which went to UNICEF's education programmes.
