

Watch: Radisson Hotel Group implements global plastic reduction plan

The Radisson Hotel Group has announced that it is implementing a plan to reduce single-use plastics on a global scale. The group also announced plans to introduce bulk amenities in all hotels across its portfolio by 2022. The video below further describes the group's new initiative.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>