

At home with Keith Kirsten

The October issue of home and décor titles tuis and English sister publication home features a 16-page gardening supplement with local gardening guru Keith Kirsten as guest editor. "Key findings from a recent research project indicate that our readers are avid gardeners, with over 60% spending their weekends working in the garden, 80% of them seeking inspirational ideas from magazines," says Anneke Blaise, recently appointed editor of the two titles.
