

Expo

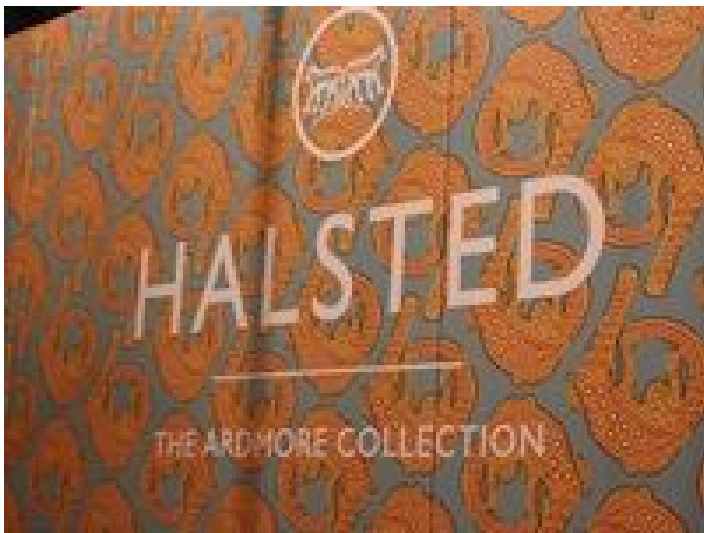

The annual Design Indaba Expo is billed as the premier showcase of South Africa homegrown wares. Bizcommunity took a snapshot of the creative stand designs and merchandise on offer across the disciplines of accessories, fashion, footwear, furniture, homewares and graphic design. We predict that South African comic books, laser cut greeting cards, label design and ropey jewellery will be the next global trends.

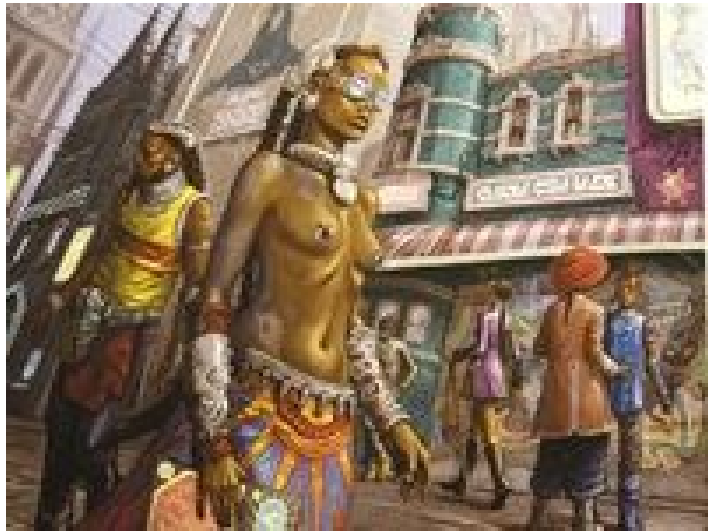

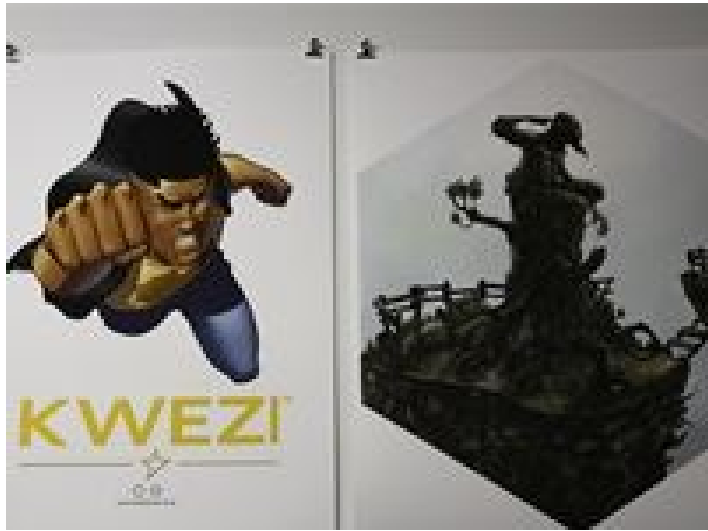

The EXPO is on at the CTICC until Sunday 1 March 2015.
