

Boity, Prince Kaybee and DJ Kent join Vivonation 2020 lineup

Multi-faceted Boity, multi-platinum selling powerhouse Prince Kaybee and producer and mega-mixing star DJ Kent have been added to the Vivonation 2020 lineup. The rest of lineup includes Nadia Nakai, Lady Zamar, Nasty C, Busiswa, Shekhinah and Samthing Soweto.

The four-stage musical event will be held at the Container Yard in New Doornfontein on 4 and 5 April.

On the #Uncontained stages Pretoria's party kings Homecoming Events will raise the city's flag high as they present Pitori FM and a fresh mix of Pretoria's acclaimed music talent, including a rap battle between emcees 25K and Focalistic. DBN Gogo will provide a captivating mix of gqom, house and amapiano to heat up the dancefloor.

Jozi's eclectic leftfield rulers WeHeartBeat promise more of the cutting-edge flavour they've come to be known and trusted for. Look out for the likes of producer and deejay Gina Jeanz, and the undisputed king of the cool kids Muzi. Augmenting the beats will be a vinyl-only segment on Sunday featuring known collectors such as Zara, DJ Symatics, Julius and Just Themba.

2020 Vivonation lineup announced

30 Jan 2020

Tickets cost R150 per person and include an R80 non-refundable food and drinks voucher plus free Park and Ride from Newtown Junction. Tickets are available at vivonation.co.za.

Check out the full lineup at www.vivonation.co.za.