The 2021 Jazz and Classical Encounters Festival Volume 3 at Spier Amphitheatre takes place on Saturday, 4 December 2021. The show will open with South African Music Awards (Sama) 2019 winner - pianist Bokani Dyer and his trio - who will present Neo Native album with Sphelelo Mazibuko on drums and Romy Brauteseth on bass.

I spoke to the master pianist last week:

■ The new decade means:

Hopefully it means the end of Covid-19.

■ Fame is about:

Lots of people knowing about you, I guess?

■ Retirement will happen when:

I can't say definitively. Not anytime soon!

■ I don't do:

Nonsense.

■ What does music mean to you?

A lot of things. Different things at different times. It is a companion at times and also a means to express myself and also learn about myself.

■ My music is about:

Everything. The life we live, our experiences, our solidarities, our hopes and dreams.

🎵 I would love to co-write with:

Laura Mvula and Oumou Sangare.

🎵 Where do you go for inspiration to create?

It is not specific. Sometimes inspiration comes at unlikely times. I just feel the spark to create and then it happens.

🎵 What is the most enjoyable aspect of your work?

Connecting with people, whether it is fellow bandmates on stage or audiences.

🎵 The song you must do in every show:

Mmm. I don't have one that I feel I must do, but from streaming insights, I have seen that a lot of people enjoy the song Fola from the Neo Native album.

🎵 Any funny moments on stage:

All the time! Sometimes when you go completely blank on songs you know really well, best to find the funny side of these moments I think.

Also, sometimes audiences say some hilarious things.

🎵 My heroes:

So many! For today, I will say Maya Angelou. So much powerful insight and inspired thought.

🎵 My style icon:

Still looking for one.

🎵 Which living person do you admire most and why?

I admire a lot of people and their actions. It is difficult to single out one person and say they are the best or most admired. I admire my mother for being highly principled and resolute in the things that she believes in.

🎵 What is your most treasured possession?

My piano.

🎵 It's your round. What are you drinking?

Whiskey.

🎵 Dream gig to do:

I did one of my dream gigs two years ago at Ronnie Scott's in London - a place with so much history and so many greats who have graced that stage.

🎵 What makes you stand out?

Everyone has a unique story to tell. I have my own and this makes me stand out.

🎵 Nicknames:

Bo, Boks, Bokso, Bokanator, Bokolosh and lots more. I am blessed to have some very creative people around me!

🎵 If you were not a musician, what would you do?

Probably something to do with psychology research.

🎵 Who would play you in a Hollywood blockbuster and why?

Haha, I don't know. My favorite actor is Denzel Washington, so it would be a trip to see him do it.

🎵 Pick five words to describe yourself:

Optimistic, daring, self-critical, careful and caring.

🎵 Five favorite SA albums:

Genes & Spirits - Moses Molelekwa

Celebration - Bheki Mseleku

Born in a Taxi - Blk Sonshine

We used to dance - Andile Yenana

Live at the Market Theatre - Sibongile Khumalo

📌 Greatest movie ever made:

So many, but a recent one is Parasite.

📌 What books are you reading?

The New Apartheid by Sizwe Mpofu-Walsh.

📌 What song changed your life?

Spanish Joint - D'Angelo.

📌 Who do you love?

My wife, family and friends.

📌 What is your favorite word?

Shalom.

📌 Favorite fashion garment:

Probably my hats.

📌 What do you complain about most often?

I don't complain much. I would have to ask my wife about that.

📌 What is your fear?

Death.

📌 Happiness is:

A great feeling that I wish for everyone as much as possible.

📌 On stage, I tend to?

Lick my lips.

📌 The best life lesson you have been taught:

So many. A recent one is about not being too quick to assume things. At times, I think people have the tendency to interpret things hastily, only to find that their assumptions were incorrect.

📌 Do you get worked up whilst watching a sports game on TV?

Sometimes while watching soccer I get passionate.

🎯 Where would you like to be right now?

I am happy to be where I am.

🎯 Do you do charity work and if you do, what do you do?

Not really. I would like to change this. There are so many people who need help in this country.

🎯 Wishes and dreams:

A more accepting country and world.
