

F1 review: Netherlands 2021 and ramblings

Zandvoort has been the circuit that hosted the Dutch F1 Grand Prix from 1950 to 1985 - four years in this period did not stage the Grand Prix at this venue. In the final Grand Prix in 1985 Niki Lauda kept McLaren teammate and archrival Alain Prost at bay to take his 25th and final Grand Prix victory.

It is the venue that saw Gilles Villeneuve famously pass Alan Jones into Tarzan corner (Turn 1) in 1979, only for his left tyre to explode later in the race, forcing the Canadian to spin his Ferrari to a halt.
