

Altron BDS announces appointment of Warren Mande as new Altron Arrow MD

Altron Bytes Document Solutions (ABDS) has announced the appointment of Warren Mande as the new managing director for Altron Arrow, effective 1 March 2020. Mande currently holds the sales divisional executive position at Altron BDS where he is responsible for Xerox's office sales operations across the country.

He has over 17 years of experience working with Xerox and Altron both in South Africa and the United Kingdom, having started off as a graduate trainee before being elevated to the position of commercial manager and taking up as a sales director position at Bytes UK for seven years. Altron BDS managing director Johan Basson thanked Mande for his contribution at the company and wished him well in his new position.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>